Notice of cancellation or postponement of a General Meeting must state the reason for doing so and be given to each Member individually.

4.7 Contents of notice postponing General Meeting

The only business that may be transacted at a postponed General Meeting is the business specified in the notice originally convening the General Meeting.

4.10 Non-receipt of notice

The non-receipt of a notice convening, cancelling or postponing a General Meeting by, or the accidental omission to give a notice of that kind to, a person entitled to receive it, does not invalidate any resolution passed at the General Meeting or at a postponed General Meeting or the cancellation or postponement of the General Meeting.

5 PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS5.1 Number for a quorum

Subject to article 5.4, 60% by number of those persons who are Members and who are present and eligible to vote are a quorum at a General Meeting.

5.2 Requirement for a quorum

An item of business may not be transacted at a General Meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to consider it.

If a quorum is present at the beginning of a General Meeting it is taken to be present throughout the meeting unless the chairman of the meeting (on their own motion or at the request of a Member who is present) declares otherwise.

5.3 Quorum and time

If within 30 minutes after the time appointed for a General Meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting:

- (a) if convened by, or on requisition of, Members is dissolved; and
- (b) in any other case stands adjourned to the same day in the next week and the same time and place, or to such other day, time and place as the Zone Committee appoint by notice to those entitled to notice of the General Meeting.

5.4 Adjourned General Meeting

At a meeting adjourned under article 5.3(b), 40% by number of those persons who are Members and who are present and eligible to vote are a quorum.

If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the adjourned General Meeting, the meeting is dissolved.

5.5 President to preside over General Meetings

The President is entitled to preside at General Meetings.

If a General Meeting is convened and there is no President, or the President is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the General Meeting or is unable or unwilling to act, the following may preside (in order of entitlement):

- (a) the Vice-President (if any);
- (b) a Zone Committee Member chosen by a majority of the Zone Committee Members present;
- (c) the only Zone Committee member present; or
- (d) a Member chosen by a majority of the Members present.

- (a) has charge of the general conduct of the meeting and of the procedures to be adopted;
- (b) may require the adoption of any procedure which is in their opinion necessary or desirable for proper and orderly debate or discussion or the proper and orderly casting or recording of votes; and
- (c) may, having regard where necessary to the Incorporations Act, terminate discussion or debate on any matter whenever they consider it necessary or desirable for the proper conduct of the meeting.

A decision by the chairman under this rule is final.

5.7 Adjournment of General Meeting

The chairman of a General Meeting may at any time during the meeting adjourn the meeting or any business, motion, question, resolution, debate or discussion being considered or remaining to be considered by the meeting.

The adjournment may be either to a later time at the same meeting or to an adjourned meeting at any time and any place.

The chairman may, but need not, seek any approval for the adjournment.

Unless required by the chairman, a vote may not be taken or demanded in respect of any adjournment.

Only unfinished business is to be transacted at a General Meeting resumed after an adjournment.

5.8 Notice of adjourned General Meeting

It is not necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at any adjourned General Meeting unless a General Meeting is adjourned for one (1) month or more.

In that case, the same period of notice as was originally given for the General Meeting must be given for the adjourned meeting.

5.10 Equality of votes

Except on a resolution to elect a Zone Committee Member, if there is an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting is entitled to a casting vote in addition to any votes to which the chairman is otherwise entitled.

5.11 Declaration of results

At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is properly demanded and the demand is not withdrawn.

A declaration by the chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meetings of the Zone, is conclusive evidence of the fact.

Neither the chairman nor the minutes need state and it is not necessary to prove, the number or proportion of the votes recorded for or against the resolution.

5.12 Poll

If a poll is properly demanded, it must be taken in the manner and at the date and time directed by the chairman and the result of the poll is the resolution of the General Meeting at which the poll was demanded.

A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.

A demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

A demand for a poll does not prevent the General Meeting continuing for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded.

5.13 Objection to voting qualification

An objection to the right of a person to attend or vote at the General Meeting or adjourned meeting:

- (a) may not be raised except at that meeting; and
- (b) must be referred to the chairman of the meeting, whose decision is final

A vote not disallowed under the objection is valid for all purposes.

5.14 Chairman to determine any poll dispute

If there is a dispute as to the admission or rejection of a vote, the chairman of the meeting must decide it and their decision made in good faith is final and conclusive.

6 VOTES OF MEMBERS

6.1 Votes on show of hands

On a show of hands, each Voting Member present at a General Meeting has one (1) vote.

6.2 Votes on a poll

On a poll, each Voting Member present at a General Meeting has one (1) vote.

A Member entitled to attend a general meeting of the Zone is entitled to appoint another person as their proxy to attend the meeting in their place.

A proxy has the same right as the Member to speak and vote at the general meeting and may be appointed in respect of more than one meeting.

However, in the case of a Standing Committee Member, the appointment of a proxy must be approved by the relevant Standing Committee.

Proxy votes are not allowed at Zone Committee Meetings.
